

Checklist for Early 20th Century Lesson

Student Name: _____

The activities in this lesson are vital to the understanding of man and his environment. You are accountable to your group for the following:

1. _____ Worked with group to analyze the assigned early 20th century home (concept map).
2. _____ Group submitted at least 2 ideas/characteristics on the concept map.
3. _____ Worked with group to compare/contrast early 20th century homes with partner group (Venn diagram).
4. _____ Group submitted at least 3 comparisons in each area of the Venn diagram.
5. _____ Participated in the class discussion and activities.
6. _____ Stayed on task throughout the activities.
7. _____ Organized information from primary and secondary sources to create the advertisement for the mail order catalog.
8. _____ Student presented the advertisement to the class in a professional manner taking on the role of a sales representative in the early 20th century (verifies the students understand the concept of time in history).

Teacher will assign points according to their preference. Delete this note before printing this document.**